

Health in Greenland – a global perspective

University of Copenhagen's Department of Public Health, Globe Institute, and the School of Global Health, are inviting you to an afternoon symposium where we will explore different aspects of health in Greenland and the Arctic.

Program:

13.00-13.05 Welcome by Jane Brandt Sørensen, Assistant Professor, Global Health Section, Department of Public Health, University of Copenhagen

13.05-13.15 Welcome by Theis Lange, Professor, Head of Department of Public Health, University of Copenhagen

13.15.-14.00 15 years of Data Driven Diabetes Care in Greenland

Inauguration lecture by Michael Lyng Pedersen, Professor, Steno Diabetes Center Greenland and University of Copenhagen

14.00-14.15 Coffee and cake

14.15-15.15 Presentations:

Lessons from an unusual food system – what Arctic Indigenous foods can teach us

Aviåja Lyberth Hauptmann. Associate Professor, Head of SILA Department, Institute of Health and Nature, Ilisimatusarfik (University of Greenland), Globe Institute - University of Copenhagen

Moving towards a strengths-based perspective in public health research in Greenland

Christina Viskum Lytken Larsen, Head of Research, Professor, Centre for Public Health in Greenland, SDU & Ilisimatusarfik

Health and Society in a Greenlandic Perspective

Gert Mulvad, MD, PhD hc. GCS Institut for Sundhed og Natur, Ilisimatusarfik

15.15-16.00 Panel discussion with the presenters

16.00-16.45 Drinks and networking

We hope to see you there

Please register here.

Time: 28 June 2024, 13:00-16:45

Place: CSS 35.01.06 (Building 35, Floor 01, Room 06), Center for Sundhed og Samfund (CSS Campus), Øster Farimagsgade 5 (Easy access to building 35 from Gammeltoftsgade 15) or online on Zoom

Organizer: Department of Public Health, Globe Institute, and the School of Global Health